- The AVP IG introduced the Communications OP strategies as the new policy that the committee will be working on.
- The policy was reviewed line by line by the committee and the members suggested several changes to the sentence structure of the policy.
- The policy was updated to avoid gendered language.
- All the members agreed that the policy requires a specific section addressing communication strategies for social media platforms.
- AVP:IG agreed with the members and assured the committee that a draft of this section will be presented in the next meeting.
