Progress on Year plan

The year plan meeting will be held tomorrow; however, I anticipate there will be plenty of interesting ideas to fulfill the campaign goals and wants of the first years and their representatives.

Past Events, Projects, & Activities

As the committee has just been elected and formed, we haven't hosted any events. Currently, we're working with MSU (McMaster Students Union) Spark on first-year formal.

Upcoming Events, Projects, & Activities

We look forward to having multiple events for this term which will be discussed in far more depth tomorrow during the year-plan meeting with the core execs and residence members. Currently, the biggest upcoming event is first-year formal, a collaboration between the first-year council and spark.

Outreach & Promotions

Because the council has just been formed and we haven't started the first event yet, we haven't done much outreach. The residence chairs are currently planning a "meet your residence chair" event for each of their respective residences. We've also decided to have introductory posts, reels, and events to spread awareness about the council formation.

Successes

As previously mentioned, the year plan meeting is going to take place tomorrow, so there hasn't been enough time to have any success. However, getting elected to the council itself is a significant success, for which I congratulate and am excited for them, and somehow, I am among that group.

Current Challenges

There may be challenges later along the road, I have no idea considering how the position has just started.

Volunteers

Again, because of the lack of events so far, we've had no volunteers or volunteer management

Other

Is it possible to add a group of representatives who represent the interests of the international community?

Best,
