From the office of the...
Humanities Caucus

TO: Members of the Student Representative Assembly
FROM: Olivia Dodd, Grace Chan
SUBJECT: Year End Report 23P
DATE: March 19, 2023

Progress on Yearplan

- Since our last report, we've made significant progress on one of our main year plan goals, which was to engage Humanities students in environmental wellness
 - o We've achieved this through publishing our podcast episode and encouraging Hum to support Stop Sprawl Students' amazing events!
 - o Please go give the podcast a listen if you haven't already, we know you will love it!

Successes

- We just published our first ever podcast episode with our amazing guest Shania from Stop Sprawl Students
 - o We are working on promoting this episode more, as well as posting the short version of the podcast
- We were very fortunate to have been able to engage with Humanities students by hiring them to collaborate with us on our podcast.
 - o We used funds from the SRA Project Funds to pay two Humanities students to produce the podcast and design graphics for our covers and promotional materials
 - o We are so proud of how it turned out and overjoyed we were able to tap into the amazing talents of Hum students!

Current Challenges

- Our primary challenge this year was generating student interest in our weekly office hours
 - o Next year, we will focus on promoting them more, or explore alternative ways to engage with constituents, such as through Instagram story Q&As or virtual drop-in office hours

Other

- We are looking forward to the 2024-2025 school year, and we are so happy to have a full caucus going into these VP and Speaker election period!

Best,
